Came I to take her from her kindreds Vault,
Meaning to keepe her closely at my Cell,
Till I conueniently could send to Romeo.
But when I came some minute ere the time
Of her awaking, here vntimely lay,
The noble Paris, and true Romeo dead.
She wakes, and I entreated her come forth
And beare this worke of heauen with patience:
But then a noise did scare me from the Tombe,
And she too desperate would not goe with me:
But as it seemes, did violence on her selfe.
All this I know, and to the marriage her Nurse is priuie:
And if ought in this miscaried by my fault,
Let my old life be sacrific'd some houre before the time,
Vnto the rigour of seuerest law.

Prin. We still haue knowne thee for a holy man,
Whers Romeos man? what can he say to this?

Balth. I brought my Master newes of Iuliets death,
And then in post he came from Mantua,
To this same place. To this same monument
This letter he early bid me giue his Father,
And threatned me with death, going in the Vault,
If I departed not, and leaft him there.

Prin. Giue me the Letter I will looke on it.
Where is the Counties Page that raisd the Watch?
Sirrah what made your master in this place?

Boy. He came with flowers to strew his Ladies graue,
And bid me stand aloose, and so I did,
Anon comes one with light to ope the Tombe,
And by and by my maister drew on him,
And then I ran away to call the watch.

Prin. This Letter doth make good the friers words,
Their course of Loue the tidings of her death,
And here he writes that he did buy a poyson
Of a poore Pothecarie, and there withall,
Came to this Vault, to die and lye with Iuliet.
Where be these enemies? Capulet, Mountague?

See

See what a scourge is laide vpon your hate?
That heauen finds means to kil your ioyes with loue,
And I for winking at your discords too,
Haue lost a brase of kinsmen, all are punisht.

Cap. O brother Mountague, giue me thy hand,
This is my daughters ioynture, for no more
Can I demaund.

Moun. But I can giue thee more,
For I will raie her statue in pure gold,
That whiles Verona by that name is knowne,
There shall no figure at that rate be set,
As that of true and faithfull Iuliet.

Cap. As rich shall Romeos by his Ladies lie,
Poore sacrifices of our enmitie.

Prin. A glooming peace this morning with it brin
The Sun for sorrow will not shew his head:
Go hence to haue more talke of these sad things,
Some shall be pardoned, and some punished,
For neuer was a storie of more woe,
Then this of Iuliet and her Romeo.

FINIS.
